

A Songwriting Workshop

with one of Canada's best known singer-songwriters

Lennie Gallant

Thursday, January 21, 2010, 2:30-5:00 pm

Carleton University, Fenn Lounge, Residence Commons (North Campus)

General Admission $10.00, Students $5.00

Tickets available from the Music Office (Loeb A911 or 613-520-5770) and at the door

Students, faculty, and the general public are invited to attend as one of Canada's leading songwriters instructs Carleton student composers on ways to improve their craft

"Gallant nails it!

Our northern neighbor has given us some of the best songwriters living today. You can add Lennie Gallant to that list!"

- The Performing Songwriter, Nashville

"Lennie Gallant is one of my favorite Canadian Songwriters . . . I have always wanted to bring his music to the forefront."

- Jimmy Buffett

"The kind of craftsmanship and imagination that applies to only a handful of Canada's top singer/songwriters such as Bruce Cockburn, Gordon Lightfoot and Sarah MacLachlan."

- Ron Foley Macdonald

Lennie Gallant is widely recognized as one of Canada's leading songwriters. His nine albums (seven in English and two in French) have won him 13 East Coast Music Awards and 3 Juno Award nominations. Gallant is in Ottawa to perform two shows at the National Arts Centre on his "If We Had A Fire" CD release tour. Following on the success of his last album, the Juno nominated "When We Get There," He promises that "If We Had A Fire" is his best work yet! (<http://www.lenniegallant.com/>)

LENNIE GALLANT'S PERFORMANCES AT THE NATIONAL ARTS CENTRE

January 19 (in English)

"If We Had A Fire" (CD release)
(this show will be recorded by CBC Radio 2 Canada Live!)

Le 20 janvier (en français)
"Le coeur hanté" (Nouvel album)

For tickets, visit ticketmaster.ca
or the NAC Box Office